Hello!

I am Sandy! My hometown is London, but now I live in a small town Oxford. It is small but well-known all about the world because of the oldest university. My father is a teacher in this university so we moved here from noisy and crowded London. At first I didn't like the life here – I am a city mouse, really, but then I made a lot of friends and we have a good time together! My coolest spot here is a nice park along the river – we like boating here and play beach volleyball when it's hot. On rainy days we like going to a small café to eat ice-cream and then go to a big 5-D cinema to see adventure films!

1. Sandy lives in the capital city.
2. Sandy's father is a student of the university.
3. The family often spends weekends in London.
